

DONATION FORM

If you have been inspired by the aims of the Debate and would like to support the work of the Reed's School Foundation by donating to the Andrew Reed Debate Fund, please take time to complete and return this form to the address shown below.

All donations will help support our Debate partner charities in offering assisted bursary places at Reed's School for their most deserving children as well as running an extensive outreach programme that raises aspirations, provides new skills and broadens opportunities to many other young people.
